PRUDENTIAL INTERNATIONAL presenting stable and suitable investment options for both Spanish and UK residents

Bank deposit rates are the lowest in history and are expected to remain low for the foreseeable future. Prudential International will present a unique alternative that offers attractive returns whilst providing a good degree of stability for Spanish and UK residents seeking both tax efficient income and growth.

DECOTTA LAW explaining the new EU Will laws and what you need to know

New positive EU Will laws came into effect in August. It is important to ensure your Will is correctly structured, otherwise enforced Spanish heirship could occur. Gain a better understanding and find out if you need to take action.

Plus a discussion of the new 99% allowance for death and gift taxes in the Canary Isles, with Q&A session

In a recent editorial, we highlighted a 'game changing' announcement made by the new Canary Isles parliament. We will explain the situation and the benefits to you as residents and non-residents.
